Eat. Drink. Give!

Ten22 Pledges 15% of Revenue to Music Circus June 19-23

SACRAMENTO, Calif., June 7, 2011 – Ten22 has partnered with the Music Circus for a special fundraiser ~ Eat. Drink. Give!

Having a strong commitment to community, Ten22 is doing its part to aid nonprofits in the Sacramento area during these tough economic times. From June 19-23 (Sunday-Thursday), 15% of all revenue generated at Ten22 will be donated to the Music Circus.

“We look forward to helping promote Music Circus, an organization that has played a huge role in Sacramento’s entertainment industry and the community as a whole,” said Terry Harvego, owner of Ten22. “The continued success of the Theatre is extremely important, and our family is pleased to partner with them to help out during this very difficult financial climate.”

California Musical Theatre Executive Producer Richard Lewis echoed this sentiment. “Partnerships like this represent one of the best ways to ensure success during these challenging times,” Lewis said. “We are stronger together than we are individually. We are so grateful for this marvelous opportunity!”

The theatre is currently presenting “Mary Poppins” at the Community Center and “Defending the Caveman” at the Cosmopolitan Cabaret. The 61st season of the Music Circus will officially begin on July 12.
