Restaurant Voted as Best New Restaurant in Sacramento Celebrates a Successful First Year

Ten22 in Old Sacramento Closes in on its First Year in Business November 14th

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Nov. 2010 – On the heels of its best-ever month in sales, Ten22, named Sacramento’s Best New Restaurant in 2010, is celebrating its one-year anniversary with a great future for growth ahead. To celebrate with guests, Ten22 is offering anniversary Happy Hour drink specials and select free appetizers in the bar daily from November 12 through 14 from 4:00 – 7:00 p.m. The restaurant will also have live bands play for guests every Friday and Saturday.

Lloyd and Terry Harvego, the owners of Ten 22 and its sister restaurant The Firehouse, attribute the restaurant’s success to putting guests first when making decisions for the new restaurant, from selecting new menu items to identifying staffing levels, physical improvements, and daily food specials.

The owners also believe the restaurant’s accomplishments are a result of its broad appeal. “We think Ten22 guests represent a wide segment of the population because the restaurant combines gourmet yet casual fare with high-quality service in a comfortable, yet sophisticated setting,” said Terry Harvego, owner of Ten22 restaurant. “We also believe that we provide a unique dining experience to Old Sacramento that is exciting for locals, which makes up a good segment of our customer base.”

The Ten22 team has also made smart decisions during their first year including the addition of award-winning Executive Chef Jay Veregge; the introduction of popular live bands at the restaurant and a wide variety of creative marketing efforts including the most recent Smart Car promotion and a partnership with the River Cats.
